
Intermediate Project Engineer

Our small and quickly expanding company is seeking candidates for an Intermediate Project Engineer to begin immediately.

Overall Requirements

- Strong interpersonal skills and positive attitude which you will utilize in a team and customer oriented environment
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Proven ability to take initiative, yet be able to take direction and guidance
- Able to organize, plan and prioritize work
- Possess excellent decision making and problem solving skills

Skills

- Experience in a variety of modeling techniques
- Ability to think systematically and critically
- Problem solving skills and root cause identification skills
- Effective written and oral communications
- Communication of technical information to a non-technical audience
- Communication of business information to a technical audience
- Ability to foster relationships and partnerships with internal and external stakeholders

Tasks

The tasks and activities for this position include but are not limited to;

- Full scope of engineering activities for IIS products and systems
- Coordinate with project teams to support operations and ensure conformance to design and equipment specifications and compliance with operational safety standards.
- Analyze technical data, designs or preliminary specifications
- Prepare specifications for systems/designs and products for procurement
- Identify and resolve design and performance issues
- Supervise and train project team members as necessary
- Develop plans for programs or projects
- Develop policies, procedures methods and standards
- Prepare technical reports or related documentation
- Prepare status reports to senior management

Experience and Education

- Project Management experience
- A degree in engineering from a recognized university

Assets

- Experience with imaging equipment, electronics, electrical systems and optical character recognition

Additional

Occasional travel is a component of this position. Security clearances must be obtainable for travel purposes.

Intelligent Imaging Systems Inc. is a supplier and integrator of some of the most advanced imaging systems today. We provide transportation and law enforcement agencies with the industry's most technologically advanced tools in an effort to make the goals of safety and security more efficient and effective.

We have developed a suite of integrated technologies that include thermal imaging, digital imaging, radiation detection, and laser scanning systems. Our technologies, our expertise and our cultivated partnerships with proven technology providers enable us to create the most advanced safety and security enforcement systems available in the marketplace today. Our core markets are transportation safety and security, law enforcement and public security.

Intelligent Imaging Systems' head office is in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada with sales offices located in Edmonton, Alberta; Vancouver, British Columbia; Ottawa, Ontario; and Frankfort, Kentucky. This position will be based out of Edmonton.

This busy, challenging position offers a competitive salary, bonus structure, flex time and medical and dental benefits.

Application

Please submit resume to careers@intelligentimagingystems.com, or fax to 780.461.3039 and include salary expectations and availability.